 It appears that Arthur spent his entire enlistment at Camp Taylor, Louisville, Kentucky, but was sent to Fort Leavenworth after his trial in 1918.

Note: According to an article that appeared in the Noblesville Ledger in Sept 1940 Arthur may have served at Camp Taylor, Kentucky at the same time that Wendell Willkie served there during WW 1. Arthur is listed among the Hamilton County boys. The list indicates they also went to France. As far as I know Arthur never went to France. Doc4589.pdf

14 Nov 1933 (age 39)                      Resignation of Guardianship of his Mother; Hamilton County, Indiana, United States<sup>89</sup>

The burden of attending to the business of this trust and looking after the farm, advancing money and making reports has required so much time and attention that this guardian desires to be relieved of such burden and hereby tenders his resignation as such guardian. [1, p 52]

Said guardian would further show that he has served as guardian for nearly seven years and ha never heretofore made any charge for services and expenses. That he has incurred a large amount of expense in looking after the business of said trust and believes that his services and expenses incurred as such guardian are of the reasonable value of $700.00.
