1942, Walt, Sr., Basic Training

1944, 413th Inf Reg, Company B

Residence: 19 Mar 1918 (age 0) Hamilton County, Indiana, United States^{60,64}
 - on a farm - Dad stated that he was born about 6 miles west of Fortville in Fall Creek Twp, Hamilton Co, IN
 - This was most likely the 80-acre Farm

Residence: c. 1920 (age 1-2) Cadiz, Henry, Indiana, United States^{65,66,67,68,69} on a farm - House burned - I am venturing a guess about the date of this move to Cadiz from all other evidence.

Marital Status: 3 Jan 1920 (age 1) Single; Harrison Township, Henry, Indiana, United States³⁸

Son: 3 Jan 1920 (age 1) Walter Clifton Robbins appeared in the census in the household of Oscar Clifton Robbins and Grace Gertrude Foulke on 3 January 1920 in Harrison Township, Henry, Indiana, United States.

Residence: c. 1 Mar 1923 (age 4) Henry County, Indiana, United States⁶⁶

Illness: c. 1925 (age 6-7) A Cut on his chin; Cadiz, Henry, Indiana, United States^{66,79}
 a cut on his chin -
 Note: Dad fell between some floor joists - probably when grandpa was building the house after the one burned. He described it and said it left a scar on his tongue - he almost bit it in two. I couldn't see a scar when he showed me his tongue. Doctor said he would have a pocket in his tongue - they didn't sew it up or anything. He was not knocked out or anything - but he did

Misc.: remember that it bled a lot

 Residence: c. 1925 (age 6-7) Cadiz, Henry, Indiana, United States⁷⁶

1943, Walt Robbins, Sr., in his uniform - 17th St House

Address: Scott's farm
 Note: I am only guessing that the Oscar Robbins family moved back to the Cadiz farm once Oscar was finished building the new house on the farm. I know the family was back in the Cadiz area because the kids went to school in Cadiz and Myron graduated from Cadiz in 1930 and dad claims he went to Cadiz schools starting in the 2nd grade and through at least the 4th or 5th grades
 Illness: c. 1927 (age 8-9) having his tonsils removed; Henry County, Indiana, United States⁶⁶

Note: Dad has his tonsils out in a little town of Wilkinson in a tiny hospital. He stayed overnight and got ice cream and went home. His dad took him over and left him and came back for him the next day as he remembers. He wasn't having any trouble with his throat - people just had it done then - same thing when I was a child. People had it done because so many people had tonsillitis and getting rid of the tonsils was suppose to make it better - make it easier to breath, etc. He helped make hay the same day he got back home. Then they used a hay fork and pulled it up into the mow with horses]

Occupation: c. 1927 (age 8-9) Beginning Farmer; Cadiz, Henry, Indiana, United States⁸¹

Note: Dad started farming when he was 9 years old making hay

Religion: c. 1928 (age 9-10) attending church as a youth⁸²
 Note: Dad attended whatever churches that were in the neighborhood. He and his siblings would usually walk to church - always Methodist or Christian - could not remember if they attended any Quaker churches

- I worked in canning factories in Elwood and Tipton - The one in Tipton was a big one owned by a big company. The one in Elwood was called Ray's - Every little town had one then. Ina & Norman and Paul & Mary also worked in the canning factory. I worked there when we were living in Arcadia probably about 1935 or 1936 - they had WPA then

Address: Walnut Grove School
According to his report cards Walter entered the 10th Grade in Jackson Township in Aug/Sept 1934 and went through 6 months which would put it at about March 1935 when his record stopped.

This was evidently when they moved to a farm outside of Arcadia and that is when he said he went one day and quit to work on the farm. [1]

The only thing they had for it was some pink stuff they rubbed on it. Since you had to crawl around on the ground and move through the brush, etc you couldn't help but keep getting it. [1]

Misc.: aft 14 Oct 1946 (age 28) had tools that belonged to his Uncle Christopher²⁰⁴
 These tools were used by Walt Robbins, Sr - He obtained them in a wooden carpenters toolbox that had belonged to his uncle Christopher Columbus Robbins ID0071 at his death on 12 Oct 1946.

I distinctly remember the big toolbox and all its contents. The toolbox is no longer in existence and I don't know of any photos of it.

The Toolbox was about 3 feet long and about 18 inches wide and about 18 inches high. It had a lid that was recessed. The lid was fitted with specialized places for various tools. The tools were locked in with swiveling wooden knobs that kept the various tools in place. In the bottom section of the toolbox there were also different areas created for specific tools with their own mechanisms to keep them in place. As I recall there were rope handles on each end of the box. The box was painted red.

Walter was sick with Meningitis in 1957 and was hospitalized at Ball Hospital in Muncie, Delaware County, Indiana - This was a difficult time for Norma because she had to manage the farm, the home and the children. Walter was very sick for quite a while and this was ultimately what led to selling the farm in the fall of 1958 and purchasing the Stoney Haven Motel.

Will: 25 Jan 2008 (age 89) Muncie, Delaware, Indiana, United States²⁶⁵
 Illness: 31 Jan 2008 (age 89) Macular degeneration; Indianapolis, Marion, Indiana, United States^{266,267}
 Dad went to the eye doctor in Indianapolis and they determined that he suffered from macular degeneration. They discovered that his eye had hemorrhaged and they inserted a needle into his eye and then another one beside his eye to give him some relief. The next day he says it has helped him.

Illness: 7 Apr 2008 (age 90) his 6th hip replacement operation; Indianapolis, Marion, Indiana, United States^{268,269,270,271,272,273}
 - St Vincent's Hospital, 2001 W 86th St, Indianapolis, IN 46260
 The operation was performed at St Vincent Hospital, Indianapolis, Marion County, Indiana by Dr. Dro. The operation began at 10:06am and lasted about 5 hours. The procedure was more complicated and involved than the doctor anticipated. He lost a lot of blood and had to have transfusions of 3 pints of blood. For a 90-yr old man he came through with flying colors. The family was allowed to visit with him in recovery for a few minutes and he was teasing the nurses and making everyone laugh. He was in his room and we were able to see him at 630pm. The hospital is located at 2001 W 86th St, Indianapolis, 46260. He was in room 1508 of the Orthopedic Unit in Team 1. His room telephone number was 317-338-0183.

Illness: 17 Nov 2010 (age 92) Stomach pains; Ball Memorial Hospital (IU of Indiana), Muncie, Delaware, Indiana, United States^{277,278,279}

- 18 Nov 2010: He complained of stomach discomfort and his daughter Janet took him to the Emergency room at Ball Memorial Hospital. He was having diarrhea and vomiting at home before he called Janet. She picked him up and took him to the emergency room at Ball Hospital where they ran tests and by evening of the 17th could find nothing wrong. While in the emergency room he continued vomiting and having diarrhea. Tina and I arrived about 7pm and they had already decided they were going to keep him. He was sore from all the exertion and continued to go from both ends even after they moved him to a room on the 9th floor (room 9117-1). Dad has decided he doesn't want to go back home but go form the hospital to the assisted living center (Elm Croft). We all left him about 915pm.

Personal doctors no longer see patients at Ball Hospital - so the hospital assigns a "hospitalist" as their doctor - the name of his was Dr. Laura Jones.

They kept him until the afternoon of 22 Nov 2010 when his granddaughter drove him to Lynd House Assisted Living facility on East McGalliard Rd in Muncie. His son Walt and daughter Janet were still both sick with the stomach problems. His first choice (Elm Croft) did not have any apartments available, so Lynd House was the next choice.

Misc.: 13 Oct 2012 (age 94) death of friend Wilma Finch; Odon, Daviess, Indiana, United

States³¹²

Wilma Finch was dad's first girlfriend long after Mom passed away. He wouldn't admit it but the main reason he moved to the Manhattan Ave. house was because Wilma lived right around the corner.

Wilma had lived there until she had medical problems and was moved to live with her daughter in Indianapolis and then later to Odon, Indiana.

Dad called her at least once each week and sometimes more often. They were very close.

Occupation:

Picking apples - Tomatoes^{66,317}

Picking Apples: First started probably in 1964 while on strike. Dad first got a job installing roofs on schools in Anderson. Once that job was done he went back to the employment office and they said they needed pickers at Hoosierland Orchards so he went and picked for them for several years. Probably quit picking apples a couple years after he retired. He broke his arm and never picked again. Dad picked for Hoosierland orchards mostly but he also picked a while at an orchard at Yorktown, but not much. Bill Russell, a man that worked with dad, picked with Dad at Hoosierland and he, too, was a good picker and could keep up with Dad.

Why did you like it? Because it looked like you were accomplishing something. He said he used to pick tomatoes and could pick 90 bushel per day. He was also able to pick 100 bushels of apples per day. He was good at and he enjoyed it.

Where did you pick tomatoes? We raised them on the farm at Fairview. Dad and Myron raised them and got the money from them. Myron got married while they were living at Arcadia. When they moved from Arcadia to the Fairview farm, Grandpa Robbins rented a house for Myron a couple of roads from the Fairview house for him and Irene to live in. He lived there and helped Dad and grandpa farm for a couple of years then moved to Sheridan and began working in a factory. Myron didn't have to go to the service because he had two kids by then. Stories:

oDad liked farm work and was willing to do whatever his dad wanted done

What Dad Taught Me

My Dad taught me the importance of habits. When turn signals first became available in automobiles we were driving down one of our county roads on our way home when dad came to a road and he turned on the signal. I looked all around and did not see another vehicle in sight. I asked Dad why he was using his turn signal since nobody would see it. Dad responded that if he used the turn signal every time he was making a turn then he would get in the habit of using this new device and then he would not forget to use it when it really mattered.

He also taught me to always remove the keys from the car when you shut off the engine and put them in your pocket. That way you would not accidentally lock your keys in your car. People look at me and smile when they see me stopped for a train, because I will shut off the engine and remove the keys from the ignition.

These are two examples of the ways my Dad taught me to use habits to make my life easier and less stressful. They have been valuable and I continue to follow both of them to this day.

Hi! I went past Grandma's house today. They have put a new wood porch/stairs at back door. They either painted or put new siding on garage Grandpa built. They tore down the garage Bill built. There is a pile of wood.

I can remember being in the kitchen, I remember the pump was inside the house in the kitchen I think - I remember brother Phil getting his arm stuck in the washer ringer and that he got his little finger cut off in the pulley of the water pump. I can remember going to the grocery at the corner of Centennial and Country Club Road and buying Grapette, a popular drink at the time. I also remember a big house across the road from us.

Notes:

I remember that I messed with the telephone at this house and the repairman had to come out to repair it - I had unscrewed the mouthpiece and turned the disk inside upside down or something.

I remember that we had an outhouse and it was a 2-holer - I also recall there was an apple orchard to the east of the house and the neighbors to the east were named Rector and they had 2 older boys, one of which took me to my first grade class on my first day of school.

A Railroad track ran north and south to the west of the house. A single train would go north in the morning and come back south in the afternoon every day. The cars were pulled by a single coal-fired steam engine. I liked to watch the train go by every day. On several occasions hobos would jump off the train near our house because it began slowing down for Eaton at that point. They would oftentimes come to the house to see if they could do some work for some food. Usually Mom would just give them something to eat and not require them to do anything for us. They were polite and thankful for whatever they received and went on their way.

We got our first television at his house. I can remember how great I thought it was. It was black and white and the picture was very fuzzy most of the time - Dad had to constantly go outside to adjust the antenna which was on a pole outside the house - by rotating the antenna the picture would get better or worse depending on the time of day, weather, etc.

My sister Janet was born while we were living at this house

I also remember that my dog Duke was born here. We had some cows in the barn and Dad had made stalls and a trench for the cows to use. Dad had an old Ford Truck and one day after he had left for work I was playing in it and somehow got it started and ran it into the foundation of the barn - I don't know if I caused any damage or not. I recall that on the north end of the

110-acre farm

I remember a lot about this residence. It was a farm of 110 acres and had a woods in the northwest corner of the property. The farm was on both sides of the gravel road. The house was on the south side along with an outbuilding and a chicken house with a fenced area for the chickens, etc. There was also a metal grain shed in the fenced enclosure. The property was all in Delaware County. The northern boundary was on the Delaware/ Blackford County line.

The house was a 2-story with a front porch. There was a well pit on the east side of the house where the well and water pump was located. It had a lid over it that covered the pit which seemed deep to me as a child. We move there in 1952 when I was about 8 years old. Downstairs in the house was the kitchen and living room and 1 bedroom - there was a room behind the kitchen. I remember there being these huge old dark cabinets in the kitchen - There was not a bathroom in the house - we had a pitcher pump and later a sink with a faucet. Later Dad put in a bathroom but before that we had to use the outhouse located on the south side of the house. We had to move it and clean out the pit every so often - what a smelly awful job.

Before the bathroom baths were taken on Sunday nights in a big old galvanized tub that was placed on the floor of the kitchen floor in front of the wood stove. all of us kids would get to use the same water for our baths. It sure was nice when we got the bathroom and had a shower and an inside toilet!

The barn, a long garage and a couple of other outbuildings were on the north side of the road. The barn had a hayloft and was usually full of bales of hay. The long garage building was full of hog pens where the hogs lived and where in the winter the baby pigs were born. I well remember having to spend the nights out there when they were being born and having to use a pitch fork or something to move the little pigs out of the way so the mother hog would not roll over on them and smash them - As I recall each time a little pig was born she would roll over before having the next one. There were heat lamps over each stall for the little pigs but no warmth for us in the building.

We had a pony named Billy who was not very nice - He liked to kick. He was a pretty pony and we had a fancy saddle and bridle for him. We also had other horses - Phil had a horse named Trigger and mine was a white male horse that I named Sliver - a play on the word Silver. The Lone Ranger TV series was popular at that time and a favorite of mine. Since the Lone Ranger's horse was a white stallion named Silver I wanted my white horse to be special so I named him Sliver. He and Trigger (Named after Roy Rogers' horse) had been from the west. To be quite honest, I was afraid of the horses - they were so big and liked to buck and throw us off of them - it is a miracle that one of us did not get killed from being thrown from these horses. I remember it took a long time before I was actually able to ride Sliver - He wanted to take off immediately when you placed your foot in the stirrup and not waiting until you were actually in the saddle.

1978, Norma - Walter - Hawaii

We had a couple of other horses as well. I remember having a smaller horse and Dad sold him to a neighbor who lived straight north of us. Dad wanted us kids to ride him so he would be used to the saddle. We rode it to the end of the road to the east and back and then into the barn to have some hay as a prize. When the man came to pick up the horse he was going to ride it home. He took off and was soon back when the horse turned around at the end of the road and ran back to the barn and almost decapitated the man when it went into small barn door. He had to lead the horse to his house. This was funny but probably to the new owner.

The heat for the house, beside the wood stove in the kitchen, was from an oil heater located in the living room. It was warm in the living room but the farther away you got the colder it got. The upstairs had no heat except for what little got up there from a vent in the floor above the oil stove. In the winter we would bundle up and have lots of heavy covers - we would heat bricks on the wood stove and wrap them in towels or blankets or something and put them under the covers at the foot of the bed. It was terribly cold up there - when it got really cold we would come downstairs and sleep on the floor of the living room. That was warmer but not very comfortable. The boys bedroom was on the west side of the upstairs and I can remember, when it snowed, that snow would blow in around the window.

1978, Walt, Sr. - Hawaii

We were living here when I met a boy who lived around Albany I believe. He was the son of a man who worked with Dad at the factory. Mom and Dad would go visit and I would go along and play with the boy. He died of appendicitis and I remember going to the funeral home with my parents - I was terrified and could not sleep for a long time - I had bad dreams and was afraid of dying. It was many years before I got over the fear of dying and attaching morbidity to death.

The woods on the property was small, probably only 5 or 10 acres but I thought it was great and loved to roam around in it when I could.

I did not like farm work. I helped milk the cows, clean the manure in the barn, feed the animals, etc. We milked about 20 or so head of cattle and had several hogs at all times. We also had some chickens and of course the horses. It seemed like one of the animals were getting out of the fence areas all the time and we would have to chase them down and herd them back into the fence. Sometimes this was quite a chore. I didn't mind driving the tractor plowing, discing, etc. Other than that I didn't much care for the farm life.

1978, Norma and Walter - Hawaii

My grandfather Robbins' farm adjoined ours on the west - he had about 200 acres of land which included a large woods with a creek that ran through it. I loved to ride or walk through that woods because it had hills, water and lots of neat trees. I remember camping on the north side of the property in the woods one time with some other boys. We thought it would be cool to drink out of the creek, but we got sick from it. Turned out it was not actually a creek but a drainage ditch so the water was less than pure like the mountain streams on the cowboy shows popular at the time on TV. The camping was still fun though. There was a windmill on the north side of the property as well. Part of this property was in Delaware County and the rest in Blackford County. Dad farmed his land as well all of Grandpa's land. Dad had all the big equipment so he did the baling, combining, corn gathering, etc for all of the family.

When hay baling time came I would usually end up in the hay mow in the barn - of course this was done in the middle of summer when it was hot as Hades already and then to be couped up in the hay mow made it even worse. They would send the bales up an elevator and they would drop off in the mow. Me and sometimes one of the other boys would have to carry the bales away and stack them in the mow in neat rows and stacks.

My Uncle Milton Robbins and his family lived across the road from my Grandfather and my Uncle Paul and Aunt Mary lived to the northwest of Grandpa and their farm (all in Blackford County) adjoined that of Grandpa.

The farm was sold in 1958 and the farm sale was held on 7 Nov 1958.

Notes:

1. Norma and her sisters, Olive and Marjorie, created these cassette tapes talking about their activities and what was going on in their lives. They used these tapes in addition to frequent letters and occasional phone calls as another way to keep in touch. Olive and Marjorie both lived in the San Francisco area. They had both been the Navy during WW2 and stayed there after the war.

2. Mabel and Charlie Gilliatte accompanied them on the tour and Norma mentioned them on this tape several times. Charlie and Walter had worked together at Chevrolet Muncie and were best of friends.

The insulation had absorbed the water over time and finally the accumulated weight collapsed the ceiling. Fortunately, Norma had just walked past the area and nobody got injured. The repairs were done by Davis Construction in Muncie at a cost of $5800.00. They replaced the entire ceiling in the living room and hall. They also repaired the ceiling and walls in the dining room which sustained moisture damage. The repairs were completed in the middle of August 2003
