

EAGER TO LEARN: Members of the 1932-33 sixth-grade class in Muncie's Stevenson School pose for a picture Dec. 13, 1932. Teacher Joseph S. Shepard, also the school's principal, is standing at the rear. The school was at Mock Avenue and 18th Street. Until the area was annexed by Muncie before 1920, the school was operated by the Center Township trustee. It was closed in the 1970s, and the early 1900s building was razed. The photograph was furnished to The Album by Gene Carter of Muncie, a class member who is pictured in center foreground.
