

MRS. MABEL HAAS CRABILL, 1927 E. 17th St., will have a special birthday observance a little early this year. Her birthday is July 1. 1975

Her five daughters will be with her all at one time for the first time in 32 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank (Marjorie) Van-Couwenberghe and Mrs. Joe (Olive) Hanson, are here from their homes in San Anselmo, Calif.

At 1 p.m. Sunday a family dinner will be together the visitors and their other sisters, Mrs. John (Barbara) Mock, Albany; Mrs. Walter (Norma) Robbins, Yorktown; and Mrs. John (Wilma) Lucas, Jonesboro.

All the sisters were born and raised in the family home where Mrs. Haas still resides. They are all Central graduates, but Olive and Marjorie served in World War II as WAVES and were stationed throughout the United States. After their duty they settled in California.

There are 13 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Five sisters and their mother were together for the first time in 32 years. They celebrated the 76th birthday of their mother, Mrs. Mabel Hass Crabill, which was July 1, 1975

The five sisters are Mrs. Frank Van Couwenberghe and Mrs. Joe Hanson, both of San Anselmo, Calif.; Mrs. John Mock of Albany; Mrs. Walter Robbins of Yorktown and Mrs. John Lucas of Jonesboro.

All five girls were born and reared in the same home where their mother still lives, 1927 E. 17th.
