

Eastern Indiana Men With Our Armed Forces

Olive and Marjorie Haas, daughters of Mabel and the late August Haas, 1927 East Seventeenth street, left recently for New York to receive basic training for the WAVES at Hunter College, N. Y.

Zane Richard Howell, third class petty officer, has been in a war zone for the past eleven months. He was home on furlough recently and visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Howell, of Alameda avenue, and his wife, Mrs. Susan Howell. His address is S.M. 3/c, J. M. S., 7, Postmaster, New York City. Petty Officer Howell is a sound man.

Two sons of John Cunningham, 648 North Mulberry street, are with the armed forces. Lt. John W. Cunningham, left, now is located at Tampa, Fla., where he is a bombardier in the air corps. He received his wings at Deming, N. M., in July. Sgt. Charles R. Cunningham, who obtained his gunner's wings August 7, now has enlisted as a cadet and is in training at Denver. Both were recently home on furlough.

