

GILRS HURT IN AUTO CRASH 'DOING WELL'

"They are doing fairly well," was the report last night from St. John's Hospital at Anderson on the condition of Miss Wilma Haas, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Haas, 1927 East Seventeenth street, and of Miss Sarah Sackett, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sackett, 2813 South Monroe street, who were injured in an auto collision early Friday at Anderson.

David McGilliard, 17, driver of the auto in which the two girls were riding, was removed to the home of his mother, Mrs. Pauline McGilliard, 123 North Ohio avenue, Friday. The acci-a Harding-Congress presidential elector, 1920. As executive secretary of the Massachusetts state Republican committee, 1922-1925, he displayed astuteness in the last successful campaign of the late Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, effecting a reconciliation among the Lodge-Cranes-Weeks factions. His work in this campaign has not been overlooked.

The fact that he, a member of Congress from the industrial East, declared months back that Landon dent occurred several hours after the trio received diplomas from Central High School in the commencement exercises at the fieldhouse. Their auto collided with a taxi driven by Roy Sanders, Middletown:
