

Ball Brothers Mutual Aid Society Program.

Muncie's first amateur radio program will be broadcast over station WLBC from the Masonic Temple at 7:30 o'clock this evening. Ball Stores will sponsor the broadcast, which is the June entertainment of Ball Brothers Mutual Aid Society.

Winners will be chosen by three prominent business men, serving as judges, who will be aided in their decisions by the applause of the employes of Ball Brothers Company and Ball Stores who will be present. A gong will terminate performances not acceptable.

Arranged by Committee.

Glenn (Doc) Stanton, chairman of the mutual aid entertainment committee, has charge of the program and, with Bert Wallace, will serve as master of ceremonies, Robert Stanton will be the announcer. Other entertainment committee members are Roy Hill, George Bush, Robert Babb, AUGUST HAAS and Walter Mier.

Three vouchers redeemable at Ball Stores for merchandise will be awarded to winners. Teeny Swain and his twelve piece orchestra will furnish background music. The program includes the following performers: Roberta Gray, dramatic reader; Erskine Leo Holt and Janet Stein, accordion solo; Mrs. Ruth Cross, soprano solo; Variety Trio; Chester Clinger, bass solo; Leona Butz trio; Stuart Bebout and Hugh Hines; Melody Masters Male Quartet; Three Aces String Band; Lillian Hurst and Betty Breeze; Phyllis Dick, whistler; Alberta Clark, dramatic reader; Junior Namia, accordion solo; Kenneth Doolittle, tenor; Hoosier Boys String Band and Jimmie Ball, flute solo. The audience is limited to employes of Ball Brothers Company and Ball Stores.
