Gail Malsbary Engaged To Wed

Vows Will Be Spoken In Logansport June 27.

OF PARTICULAR interest to their many friends in this city is the announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Gail Malsbary, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Malsbary, 1201 Central avenue, Austin Heights, to Howard Charles Stein, of Saginaw, Mich., only son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Stein, of Sidney, O. The wedding will take place at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 27, at the home of the bride-elect's parents with the Rev. E. Fred Page, pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance Church in Logansport, reading the wedding vows.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Norma Haas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Haas, 1927 East Seventeenth street, and Private Walter C. Robbins, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Robbins of Redkey. The informal single ring ceremony took place Saturday afternoon, May 29, at the home of the Rev. E. L. Hamilton on South Walnut street with the Rev. Hamilton reading the wedding vows.

Miss Malsbary was graduated from Central High School in 1937 and later received her A. B. degree from Taylor University at Upland. While at Taylor she was a member of the Philalathean Literary Society and the Manka Debate Club. She was formerly employed as a case worker for the local Family Service Bureau and later served as an interviewer for the United States Employment Service in Logansport.

Mr. Stein was graduated from Sidney High School and later in 1941 from the Fort Wayne Bible Institute.
