

Magic City's Latest Musical Organization

WARNER GEAR BAND.

The Warner Gear Band, the latest musical organization in Muncie, starts off with the promise of becoming one of the best concert bands in the city. Among its members are band men who have had lots of experience. The organization first attracted attention at the Y. M. C. A. by playing at the Factory Basketball League games. It made its first public appearance by heading the parade at the district Red Men's meeting and later took an active part in the Y. W. C. A. campaign.

Gus Doerman is leader and Clifford Babb is the business manager. The handsome uniforms were furnished by the Warner Gear Company.

drum; Arthur Hillard, trombone; Earl Longnecker, trombone; Thurman Hensley, alto; Clifford Babb, snare drum. First row, Raymond Hoyt, cornet; Charles Hollopeter, cornet; Frank Tilton, cornet; Clifford St. John, cornet; Gus Doerman, clarinet and director; Claude Moore, clarinet; August Haas, clarinet; William Neighbors, clarinet; Norwood Carey, mascot (seated on floor), and John Rinard, trombone.
