we were all born at Hortonville, Dad had a Barber shop and store there Dad and mom were devorced, he left when I was 8 months old, later he married Emma Baker, they had a daughter, name Myrthilda Hiatt, born at Westfield, where dad had another barber shop, Emma died when Myrthilda was about five years old, dad and Emma are burried at Westfield

My mother, lived with me she died, Dec. 22, 1936 and is burried here at Anderson Ind. east maplewood cemertry.
 My Aunt Hannah Jessep, and my grandmother, Eunace Carney Hiatt were Twins and the were identical, you couldnt tell them apert, aunt Hannah was pretty well fixed, with money, but she left my dad $100. dollars
 They found pots of gold on my grandfathers farm, he had traded with the Indians, could be great grandfather's farm This I have heard from my older sisters and my mom.
 Dad died Aug. 6, 1939. he came to my house and asked me and my sisters to forgive him for how he treated us and our mother,

Dear Cousin!
 I wish I had known about you before. I would have liked talking to you when I was in Indiana. If you ever find the birth or death date of Esther Haines I would appreciate it. I would like to know anything more about Delilah, that you can tell me.
 I would like the info. on your line. (your grandmothers father etc)
