

REV. LUTES HEAD
NEW LIONS CLUB AT ARCADIA

Charter Presented to Organization at Banquet
Thursday Evening

(Special to The Ledger.)

ARCADIA, Ind., Nov. 14.—The Lions Club, which was recently organized in Arcadia, observed Charter Night on Thursday evening with a banquet and program which proved interesting as well as entertaining. The banquet was served in the I. O. O. F. room by representatives of the classes from the several churches of the town. The room was decorated and the tables were festive with vases of purple chrysanthemums and a center strip of purple and gold. The programs were very handsome, made of green and yellow paper and contained the names of the officers, the Lions' code of ethics, songs and the menu and were appropriate as favors.

Music was furnished by Charles Carter and orchestra and their numbers were greatly appreciated. Miss Fayola Sowers gave a trombone selection, Junior Martz a saxophone number. Before being seated at the tables all sang, "America," after which Rev. Wike gave the invocation. The address of welcome was given by Rev. E. E. Lutes, president of the Arcadia club, and the response by Lion Ginger, of Indianapolis, who was toastmaster of the evening. He introduced a number of the visiting Lions, C. W. Pennsinger and Dr. Mayhall, of Indianapolis; Mr. Elsworth and Mr. Hays, of Pendleton; Mr. Mendenhall, of Westfield; Mr. Taylor, of Seymour, and then Governor of the district of Lionism, T. O. Plummer, of Seymour, who gave a fine talk on Lionism and its history. He then presented the charter to Rev. Lutes, the president, who in behalf of the Arcadia club gave a fine speech of acceptance.

The Arcadia members of the club arose as the charter was presented and all but one were present. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Givens.

The officers of the Arcadia club are: President, Rev. Lutes; first vice-president, A. H. Weer; second vice-president, V. V. Leaming; third vice-president, R. B. Shaffer; secretary, Lloyd Lieurance; treasurer, Harvey Hiatt; Lion Tamer, E. E. Sowers, and Tail Twister, Julius Kibler. Other members of the club are Arthur Foulke, Lloyd Smith, John Button, Curtis Maker, Harold Hunt, Russel Alexander, Charles Carter, Harry Higbee, Elmer Long, Earl Bowser, Robert Bell, E. E. Sowers and Dr. E. V. Shockley.

The club members had as their guests, their wives, and there were sixty present at the banquet tables.
