

Seeking To Locate Grave

W. L. Cutts, of Hortonville, is attempting to locate the grave of his great-grandfather, Wm. Cutts, who died and was buried in this county in 1849. Mr. Cutts is of the opinion that his ancestor was buried in what is now an abandoned cemetery on what is known as the George Foulke farm in Jackson township. Records of the burials in this cemetery are not available to Mr. Cutts at this time but he hopes to locate them.
