

The smokehouse, with its contents, on the farm of George Foulke was destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon. Mr. Foulke was considerably burned about the face and hands in his efforts to save his dwelling. The fire originated from hot ashes. The loss is over two hundred dollars.