

BIG SALE OF ROBERT ROSS

Will Occur on George Foulke Farm,
West of Cicero, Wednesday,
Feb. 10th.

Robert E. Ross, who has been living on the George Foulke farm, five miles west of Cicero, for several years, will have a large sale of horses, cattle, hogs and farming implements on the farm on Wednesday, Feb. 10th. There are fifteen head of horses to be sold, including several fine Normans, as well as other good stock. The twenty-seven head of cattle include one three-year-old cow to be fresh soon, some yearling heifers, bulls and 22 head of extra good feeding steers ready for the market. One hundred and three head of hogs are to be sold. This list includes some extra good brood sows to farrow soon, part registered and about 81 head of good feeding shoats. A large number of farming implements will also be sold. The sale will be held under a tent and the W. C. T. U. ladies of the Boxleytown Christian church will furnish dinner.

This will be one of the largest sales that has been held in that neighborhood in a long time.
