

Three Good Gas Wells.

Three good gas wells have been developed in this county during the past few day. One in White River township belongs to an Elwood company and it is the fourth well in the same locality that is producing sufficient gas to justify piping it several miles. The Cicero company has two new wells. One is located on the George Foulke farm and the other on Marion Blanton's place. Both are about four miles west of the town.