

60 YEARS AGO

Three columns of names in small print published in notice of the assessment of a ditch petitioned for by John A. Wallace and others to run in Hamilton, Tipton and Clinton counties.

Aroma: Cyrus M. Harvey married Miss Jessie Kimmel sometime before the holidays, it is supposed. It was a secret and had taken place before his father made preparations for the event. Cyrus has rented Robert Allen's farm and has moved in with him to keep house for him and his brother, William Allen. . . . George Morris has moved from the Allen farm, has moved on his own farm, a mile south of town. . . . Perry Jones has sold his sawmill to a man from New Lancaster. . . . Born to Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Rummel, a girl. . . . Milton and Samuel Cox closed a series of meetings at Sugar Ridge.

Bakers Corner: Our school, under the management of George Young, is doing good work. . . . Elizabeth J. Brown is very low with dropsy. . . .

George Foulke is sick with lung fever. . . . B. F. Dillon has purchased a farm in Kansas and will
