

THE RENFRO VALLEY LODGE — This building occupies the site of the original roadside tavern in the old Renfro Valley Settlement. When excavating for the present structure a number of old Spanish coins were found. The Lodge houses a restaurant, with four dining rooms, the Souvenir Shop, the Cabin Rental Office and the Renfro Valley Post Office. On U. S. 25, Renfro Valley, Kentucky.

Color photo by Frank Shannon

A Natural Color Post Card by W. M. Cline Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Hi Everybody — we got this far and quit
for the day. 271 miles.
It sure is pretty here.
We have Cabin #8 and
it really is nice.
We don't know yet how far
we will go.
But will be home Thurs
any way —
Mother

Mrs Walter Robbins
R.R. #1
Munice, Ind.

7441

PC-092

