

Dedicated in 1940, the Aloe Plaza features a beautiful $100,000 fountain in which a series of 19 bronze figures by Carl Milles, noted Swedish sculptor, are used to depict the meeting of the waters, the Missouri and the Mississippi. It is named for the late husband of Mrs. Louis P. Aloe, who started the movement for the fountain and made a large contribution toward it.

Dear home - we are in Cheyenne
I was sick with the camp
day yesterday and last night.
I feel pretty good today.
If you could come take some math. paper. The money is on the desk. And disconnect the bed, dressing table and bridge lamp.
I forgot them.
We have to wait here 3 hrs. a slow
bus just left but we go on an express.
we didn't get to see Pike Peak. It was too hazy. Love much
