1979

The image shows a white, pointed, leaf-like object, possibly a seed or a piece of paper, lying on a light blue surface. The object is elongated and tapers to a point on the right. A blue label is affixed to the center of the object, containing the text "N.L.R." and "1979". A thin, light-colored string is attached to the top edge of the object, forming a decorative loop with a small red detail. The object appears to be a specimen or a piece of evidence.
